

Ontivity Bolsters Executive Leadership Gindea and Sander Enrich Team

NEW BRAUNFELS, TX, April 6, 2022 – Ontivity, formerly Enertech Holdings, a leading national provider of wireless infrastructure services, announced today that Scott Gindea has been appointed Chief Financial Officer. A finance veteran with over 20 years of experience, Mr. Gindea is responsible for overseeing the financial operations of all companies under the Ontivity umbrella, including Enertech Resources, ET Tower, Legacy Telecommunications, CMS Wireless, and Mountain Wireless. He will report directly to Ontivity's CEO, Joe Cecin, and will be based at the company's headquarters in New Braunfels, Texas.

Gindea brings extensive experience to Ontivity. Most recently, he served as CFO of Diversified, a global technology solutions company with over 2,300 employees and $1 billion in revenue. Prior to Diversified, he worked closely with Mr. Cecin as CFO of Hylan Group, a nationwide provider of telecom infrastructure services to wireless and wireline customers. He accumulated significant additional experience during his career in finance roles at several industrial services companies in the United States.

As Ontivity's CFO, Gindea will focus on supporting the growth and operating performance of the Ontivity businesses, while partnering with the senior team to drive efficiencies across the platform.

"I could not be happier to be partnered with Scott again," says Joe Cecin, CEO of Ontivity. "I believe he is the right person at the right time for our business. He is a smart, driven executive with a collaborative style, and has a knack for helping operations executives uncover opportunities to enhance growth and profitability."

Gindea added, "I am thrilled to be joining the very talented Ontivity team and look forward to working closely with Joe again."

Additionally, Ontivity announced the addition of Courtney Sander as Director of Corporate Compliance. Ms. Sander will partner with Ontivity's business units to promote and ensure that we are meeting our contractual, policy, and reporting requirements as well as developing programs that emphasize and grow our already strong culture of compliance and ethics. She has over 10 years of experience in the Corporate Compliance field and has worked in a broad range of private and public companies. She has an M.A. in Applied and Professional Ethics from the University of Leeds and most recently served as Global Compliance Project Manager at Flowserve. Ms. Sander will report directly to the Executive Chairman of Ontivity, Eric Chase.

Chase stated, "We are very excited to add Courtney to the Ontivity team and look forward to leveraging her experience to build on the solid culture of transparency and professionalism we have built." Ms. Sander will be based out of the Company's office in Dallas, Texas.

About Ontivity

With 20 branch offices in 13 states, Ontivity's member companies are the leading turnkey services producers in the wireless infrastructure space. Services provided include technology upgrades, structural engineering, macro tower builds, small cell, in-building, DAS and 5G installations, tower modifications, generator services, project management, civil services, microwave networks and more. The company is headquartered in New Braunfels, Texas. To learn more about Ontivity and its member companies, please visit <https://ontivity.com>.

###